The several hundred base-ball cranks who went out to Broad Street Park yesterday afterneon, saw two good games between teams of the Twin-City League.

The first game was called at 3 o'clock and was between Richmond and Swansboro, and the second, immediately following, was between the Brownies and the Olivers. The four clubs are quite well matched, with the Brownies possibly a nose ahead of the bunch, and Richmond close behind.

In the first game, it was anybody's until the seventh inning, when Bauer weakened and Knightly's men forged too far ahead for anything, but a runaway team to catch up. O'Hara, the two McEvovs and Knightly played great ball, while Crawford held down the Southsiders to six hits. Two errors in the seventh helped Richmond to clinch the victory.

Bauer, the Lowrys, Cox and W. Jennings worked hard, but the other team had the chances and won out. The official score follows: RICHMOND. A.B. R. H. S.H. O. A. E.

Chip Writes Concerning the Remarkable Performance of English Lad.

O'LEARY CHOPPED THE ODDS

Closing of Western Union Wires Rather More Helpful Than Hurtful.

(By Chip.)

CHICAGO, ILL., May 21 .- The feature events of the past week in Chicago was the impressive performance of English Lad in his race at Worth on Monday last, in which he eclipsed all three-yearolds on a Chicago track in years, and the ruling of Colonel R. C. Clowry, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company, in which he ordered all race news suspended at race tracks thrughout the country.

It will be many a day before another Derby colt performs as English Lad did at Worth on Monday. His race with did at Worth on Monday. His race with the extra quarter, which he worked to put him in preparation for future events and to develop the possibilities of this wonderful colt, was without a doubt one of the greatest achievements ever accomplished by a three-year-old this early in the season, and stamps him a thoroughbed of the foremost rank.

oughbred of the foremost rank.

The sensational feature of the Cook coit's great work was that he won his race, then went on and did his marvelous workout of a quarter of a mile in phenomenal time.

Every one knew that Fred Cook had a good colt in the son of Requital—English Lady, but how good this slashing candidate for the premier honors of the American track was, none, not even Cook or Bill Phillips, his trainer, could tell until after they had seen him tried Cook or Bill Phillips, his trainer, could tell until after they had seen him tried out at Worth. And the time?

What colt has shown such a trial for the Derby? To the half in 48 1-5, the six furlongs in 1:13, the mile in 1:30, and the mile and a quarter in 2:05 1-5.

No wonder Jim O'Leary and Kid Weller chopped the odds in their future books on English Lad from 8 to 1 to 6 to, five minutes after he had finished.

How he came down the stretch with that powerful, swinging stride of his that fairly eats up space!

How he came down the stretch with that powerful, swinging stride of his that fairly eats up space!

And what a cheer went up for him as the crowd saw little Nicol call on him and saw the gallant colt quiver and spring at the challenge, the keen, honest head straighten out for the sprint down the straighten out for the sprint down the straightway!

The field seemed to stop all of a sudden, so fast did he get away from his place, alongside Big Ben and set sail for fleet little By-Ways. The game Hildreth mare was straightened out, doing her level best, but it was not enough to withstand the cyclone sweep of those mighty limbs, and English Lad sweept up to her and past her. She was only beaten half a length in 1:41 at a mile and twenty yards, she going some herself.

Nicol had previously been instructed to ride the colt out the mile and a quarter tor, and the boy kept him going after passing the stand. He made the full mile and a quarter in 2:08 1-5. The fractional time for this sensational run was 1:41-5, 1:26 1-5, 1:48 1-5, 1:00, 1:12; 1:26 1-5, 1:38, 1:52 and 2:03 1-5. The time-for the distance of the race, one mile and twenty wards, was 1:41.

Inmediately following the trial, a flood of tets went to Weller and O'Leary, both of whom were on the track. As a reof tets went to Weller and O'Lear) of whom were on the track. As a re-cult, both cut the price of the colt in their future books. He had been held their future books. He had been held at N to I. At his present price, he bids fair to be the hottest favorite in recent history of the blue ribbon event. English Lad has started but twice this season. He has won both races. Last year he started soventeen times. Five of his races he won; he was second four times, and third three times. English Lad has always been a slow beginner, a fact which accounts for his winning no more than five races as a two-year-old. Meet of these races naturally were at

The action of the telegraph company

The action of the telegraph company whereby "tickers" service that has here-tofore furnished this information from all race tracks to all pool-rooms and other subscribers was discontinued, played directly into the hands of the Chicago gamblers, already organized to carry on such a service.

Private messages, many of them in cipher code, are sent out over the wires from all the tracks in the country to Chicago. As a common carrier, telegraph company officials declare the company is bound to accept that class of business. The cutcome of it all is, the gamblers have the "whiphand."
